

The Little Colorado River runs through the Wenima Valley.

Wenima Village Location

Wenima Village is located on the Little Colorado River approximately two miles north of the main area of the Town of Springerville, Arizona. Wenima Village was annexed to the Town of Springerville in 1988. Springerville is at the center of a geographical area known as Round Valley which is situated at the foot of the White Mountains in Southern Apache County.

Wenima Village

*In beauty, may I walk.
All day long, may I walk.*

Summertime on the Little Colorado River in Wenima Wildlife Area.

Wenima Village Location (con't)

Regionally, Springerville is at a point which is 223 miles east of Phoenix, 240 miles north-east of Tucson, 208 miles southwest of Albuquerque, New Mexico and 290 miles north-west of El Paso, Texas. Springerville is at the intersecting point for US Highway 60 and State Highways 180 and 260, all of which are direct access highways to the four regional cities mentioned.

